AGENDA DETAILS

POLICE REPORTS: Highlights from the last month by Boston and MBTA Police.

TREASURER'S REPORT: Accounting of expenses.

JEAN PATEL BUSHNELL: The executive director of Standish Village, a facility for independent and assisted living for seniors in Lower Mills, will address the meeting.

DENISE SNYDER: January is the month for school registration in the city. Ms. Snyder, senior director of welcome services for the Boston Public Schools, will explain the process and answer questions.

JOE NOLAN: Much progress has been made at the Ashmont T station, but much remains to be done. MBTA representative Joe Nolan will update us on the MBTA's timetable and take questions.

EXECUTIVE BOARD: We will select a Nomination Officer to handle the slate of nominees for the annual AANA officer elections in March.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT: Everything else.

Are you a member?

You don't have to be a dues-paying member to attend meetings or participate in our many events. Those are open to all. However, only members can vote in our March election of officers. Your dues help defray our expenses for the printing of this monthly agenda and for family events such as the tree-lighting in Peabody Square, the annual pumpkin carving, and our end-of-summer block party.

At $10 per individual and $15 per family, membership is an inexpensive way to show your support for AANA. You can pay dues at the monthly meeting or send a check with your name, address, and email to:
